

EDITH JESSIE CARNELL TRAVELLING SCHOLARSHIP

Established as a result of a bequest in the will of Mr Archibald George William Dunningham, the Edith Jessie Carnell Travelling Scholarship is named in honour of Edith Jessie Carnell, a British Librarian who worked in New Zealand between 1939-1944 as liaison between the NZ Library Association and the Country Library Service.

The value of the scholarship is up to $7,000 and is available for the purpose of assisting a librarian to further professional development by travelling anywhere in the world for either research, a study visit or conference attendance.

The award consists of the grant and a citation. These will be presented at the annual LIANZA Conference.
