CRITERIA FOR THE AWARD OF A FELLOWSHIP OF LIANZA

1.1 Definition

- 1.1.1. A Fellow of LIANZA is a personal member of the Association who has made a significant contribution to the advancement of librarianship and/or information management through a sustained record of achievements, or who has demonstrated outstanding qualities of leadership, teaching or research (Code of Practice, Part 1, Section 14.4).

1.2 Requirements (From the Code of Practice, part 1 section 12)

- 1.2.1 The award of a Fellowship is open to any personal member of the Association who satisfies the following initial requirements:
- (a) The nominee has held for at least ten years and has competently discharged the duties of a library or information management position involving possession of knowledge and judgement required for the highest levels of professional librarianship;
 - (b) The nominee has been a member of the Association for the whole of the period of qualifying service.
- 1.2.2 Only in very exceptional circumstances should nominations (or applications) for any awards be accepted for current members of the Credentials Committee. If such nominations are received then the Chair of the Credentials Committee must ensure that the nominee takes no part in any discussions for that particular award for any member at that time.

1.3 Criteria

- 1.3.1 The following criteria will be used by the Credentials Committee to assess the nominee's suitability for the award of a Fellowship:
- (a) Specific achievements in developing and providing library and/or information management services
 - (b) Outstanding and sustained leadership, management or teaching ability
 - (c) Major research into librarianship and/or information management services; or research which advances understanding of librarianship and library or information practices.

1.4 Process

1.4.1 The nominee's suitability will be assessed by the Credentials Committee in terms of the above criteria, on the basis of the following:

1.4.2 A confidential written nomination, on the official form, made by at least two members of the Association who hold Fellowships or Associateships.

Note: All nominations must be CONFIDENTIAL, and the nominee must not be made aware of the nomination.

1.4.3 Supporting evidence, supplied by the nominators, which supplements the comments made in the written nomination. This may include statements from others in support of the nomination.

1.4.4 The closing date for nominations is 31 March.

1.4.5 Extra copies of the official form are available from LIANZA. No fee is required.

A copy of the appropriate form to be used for the nomination is included as Document 2.
