

PROGRAMME AT A GLANCE

Sunday 8 October
09.00am – 2.00pm	Interloans in next generation libraries – a symposium
10.00am – 2.00pm	Architecture Tour 1: Kapiti Coast Libraries: Paraparaumu Library and Whitireia Community Polytechnic Learning Centre
2.00pm – 4.00pm	Powhiri at Pipitea Marae
5.00pm – 7.00pm	Welcome Drinks

Monday 9 October
8.45am	Welcome and Conference Opening
9.00am	Next Generation – What's on Top? Confidence
9.15am	Keynote Address – Stephen Abram Vice President Innovation, SirsiDynix and 2006 president-elect of Special Libraries Association (SLA)
10.15am	Morning Tea
10.45am	Millennials' Panel With Stephen Abram
11.30am	Concurrent Sessions
	1 Recruiting the Next Generation of Librarians: retention strategies that work Elaina Norlin	2 Ten Top Technologies for Librarians 2006 Brenda Chawner & Michael Stephens	3 'Inspire me': how public libraries got on TV Kay Forrester & Duncan McLachlan	4 Age of Participation: new delivery paradigms in the digital age Jenny McDonald	5 Managing Risks to Māori Library Collections: a conservator's perspective Tharron Bloomfield	6 Workshopping the Issues Tara Brabazon	7 'I have seen the future and it works': bibliographies and indexes in next generation libraries Kathryn Parsons
12.00pm			8 A Catalyst For Change: the interaction of a rural library with its local community – initiatives for growth through local community investment Louise Sheriff, Robyn Gray & Michael Hurley	9 Making An Exhibition of Ourselves: the gallery as portal, provocateur, and presenter of the Next Generation National Library Peter Ireland, Chris Cane and Dr Damian Skinner	10 The Role of Libraries and Archives in the Preservation and Revitalisation of Indigenous Knowledge: the case of revitalisation of te reo Māori Lorraine Johnston		11 The Collaborative Indexing Project: meeting the challenge of connecting customers to content Janess Stewart
12.30pm	Lunch, Newcomers' Lunch Showcases SIG Meetings: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preservation SIG • PubSIG • HealthLIB

Monday 9 October

Continued...

1.30pm	Keynote Address – Bonnie Cheuk Head of Knowledge Management, The Improvement Service, Scotland
2.30pm	Concurrent Sessions
	12 Change Through Appreciation: can appreciative inquiry facilitate change in New Zealand libraries? Karen Wilyams	13 Web 2.0 to go Dylan Owen & Wendy Macaskill	14 Public Libraries 2016 Sue Sutherland & Jane Hill	15 What's the REAL Impact of this Service? Sorting the Heart from the Hype: establishing the information base to determine the future of a bold new service Melanie Ingrey	16 Who says Young Adults Need Libraries? Viv Smith	17 The Accessibility of New Zealand Public Library Web Sites to People Who are Blind or Vision Impaired Melanie Brebner & Mary Parkinson	18 Connecting Libraries to Your Communities Through Digitisation Andrew Pettengell & Andy Fenton	19 Best Tips & Tricks for the Toolbox: information sharing for advanced searchers Kareen Carter
3.00pm	20 All Power to the Customer: customer-centric solutions Anne Selwyn & Fiona McGregor			21 Next Generation Libraries Need Next Generation Librarians: library training, library education, and continuing professional development Alison Fields & Amanda Cossham		22 Keeping Connected: how could future developments in audio library services increase reading uptake among older, print-disabled people? Mary Schnackenberg, Moira Clunie & Dr Greg Morgan
3.30pm	Afternoon Tea
4.00pm	Concurrent Sessions
	23 Tech Angels: next gen users are content creators Clare O'Leary and the Tech Angels	24 Tertiary Libraries – Future Focus	25 Thuringowa and Manukau Libraries: building a model for a new customer experience Kim Taunga & Warren Cheetham	26 Te Ara Tika ki Manukau: Staying the Distance Sonya Peters	27 MINT – Library Resources for Online Career Management Kat Turner	28 Federated Searching, Focussing Results JR Jenkins	29 Continued... Connecting Libraries to your Communities through Digitisation Andrew Pettengell & Andy Fenton
4.30pm	30 Passionate People: an author's view of the future of libraries and books Bernard Beckett			31 Pūnaha Pānui Kōrero: information Literacy through the medium of te reo Māori me ōna tikanga Julian Mōheka Williams	32 How a successful professional library group was developed and continues to maintain a passionate, proactive approach for its members Dianne Jones	33 Federated Search Engines – The Unified Search Environment: the Western Health Library experience Vanessa Craven
5pm finish
5.15pm	LIANZA Awards Function
6.30pm	SIG Meeting: • HealthSIG

Tuesday 10 October
8.35am	Welcome and Notices
8.45am	Next Generation – What’s on Top? – Content
9.00am	Keynote Address – Tara Brabazon Associate Professor, School of Media, Communication & Cultural Studies, Murdoch University, Perth, and Director of the Popular Culture Collective
10.00am	Morning Tea
10.30am	Presidential Address and LIANZA AGM
12.00pm	Simon Morton, Presenter, This Way Up, Radio New Zealand: Joining the Dots
12.30pm	Lunch Showcases SIG Meetings: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • EPIC • TeSIG • NZHDC
1.30pm	Concurrent Sessions
	34 Web Archiving at the National Library of New Zealand Susanna Joe & Vanita Lala	35 Grill the Boss: careering to the main course. An interactive panel.	36 Learning How to Change Our Ways Andrew Hiskens, Paula Kelly, Indra Kurzeme & Samantha Tidy	37 Competing in a Google World Workshop Stephen Abram	38 Surfing the Information Tsunami: using RSS to manage your information Stephen Harlow	39 The New U(niversity) Robyn Benjamin	40 Next Generation Health Libraries: an electronic health library for New Zealand Megan Clark	41 Injuring the Public Good? censorship and libraries in New Zealand Deborah Gordon & David Wilson
2.00pm	42 Building a Web Curator Tool for the National Library of New Zealand Gordon Paynter		43 The Future Public Library – Coming Soon to ACL Allison Dobbie			44 M for Medium: implementing a medium-sized information commons Lucy Broadbent		45 The Nonsense of Copyright in Libraries: digital information and the right to copy Paul Staincliffe
2.30pm	Concurrent Sessions
	46 Open Libraries – Open Minds: collaboration, commoditisation, communism. The real trends in library software Russel Garlick & Rachel Hamilton-Williams	47 Effective Learning in the Information Landscape: what does the evidence tell us about libraries, literacy and learning in New Zealand schools Elizabeth Jones	48 Are We Up to the Challenge? Next Generation for Non-Metropolitan Public Libraries Margaret Garland, Sue Farghar & Barbara Whitton	49 Continued... Competing in a Google World Workshop Stephen Abram	50 Special Libraries – Future Focus	51 The National Digital Heritage Archive Programme: global endeavours in digital preservation Steve Knight, Amy Ng & Mat Black	52 The Democratisation of Information – Learning Objects: a hands-on approach Sarah-Jane Saravani	53 Did We Get it Right? Post Evaluation of New Zealand's Interloans Best Practice Workshop Janice Farrelly, Thelma Fisher & Ted Kurmann
3.00pm	54 Service Development Insights from AquaBrowser Library Search Statistics Jimmy Thomas	55 Youth Services – Why Bother? Megan Williams						56 How Do We Know Whether What We're Doing is Any Good? Evaluating Information Literacy in the 21st Century. Donna Tietjens, Rachel Esson & Sara Quirke
3.30pm	Afternoon Tea
4.00pm	Concurrent Sessions
	57 Te Rōpu Whakahau and International Agendas	58 Designer Chic or Emperor's New Clothes: recent trends in library technology Brian Flaherty & Paul Sutherland	59 Reinvent Yourself: the librarian as entrepreneur Duncan McLachlan	60 Workplace Information Literacy Workshop Bonnie Cheuk Finishes 5.30pm	61 RU RDY 2 RD? Talking Texts to the Next Generation Louise Easter & Annette Williams	62 Justify or Die? Using Contingent Valuation of Service Provision in a UK Public Library Alan Poulter, David McMenemy & Liz McGettigan	63 Continued... The Democratisation of Information – Learning Objects: a hands-on approach Sarah-Jane Saravani
5pm finish
7.00pm	Cocktails followed by Gala Dinner

Wednesday 11 October

7.30am	Raeco Recovery Breakfast
8.35am	Welcome and Notices
8.45am	Next Generation – What's on Top? – Connection
9.00am	Keynote Address – Martin Nakata Director of Jumbunna Indigenous House of Learning, and Chair of Australian Indigenous Education at University of Technology Sydney
10.00am	Conference 2007 Launch
10.15am	Morning Tea sponsored by CatSIG
10.45am	Keynote Address – Evelyn Tobin Ngā Puhi, Ngāti Manu Kotare Enterprises Ltd, Auckland, Aotearoa – New Zealand Kōmiti Māori – National Library of New Zealand
11.45am	Concurrent Sessions
	64 Indigenous Peoples and the Information Society Teanau Tuiono	65 The Hub of the 'hood: designing library spaces that work for the next generation Ralph Roberts & Andrew Barclay – Warren & Mahoney Ltd	66 Teaching With Audience Response Technology: a demonstration using a medical scenario Dr Stewart Mann	67 Keeping Three Steps Ahead of Generation Next: the challenge of providing a relevant family history service in the 21st century Karen Kalopulu	68 Treasure Hunting: information literacy for international nursing students Janette Telford	69 Reinvent! Some 'Must Knows' For a Future Thinking Librarian Duncan McLachlan	70 Link Rot or How the Inaccessibility of Electronic Citations Affects New Zealand Periodicals Ailsa Parker	71 What's Yours is Mine and Mine is Yours – Synergy in Joint-use Libraries Paula Eskett & Andrew Jefferson
12.05pm					72 Marketing Academic Library Resources and Information Services to International Students Cuiying Mu	73 The Nimble Information Adventurer Robert McEntyre
12.30pm	Lunch Showcases SIG Meetings: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Local Government Librarians CatSIG AnyQuestions.co.nz / UiaNgaPatai.co.nz Hui
1.30pm	Keynote Panel Finale Next Generation Libraries – rising to the challenge Penny Carnaby leads an interactive conversation with the LIANZA Conference 2006 keynote speakers
2.30pm	Poroporoaki and Conference Closing
3.00pm	Farewell Afternoon Tea
3.30 – 5.30pm	Workshop – 'Collection, Selection, Rejection': a beginner's guide to collection development in public libraries. Deborah Olson
3.30 – 5.15pm	SIG Meeting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ITSIG
3.30 – 5.30pm	Tours <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Knowledge Management – Treasury and Parliamentary Library Architecture Tour 2 – Karori Library Behind the Scenes – National Library and Archives of New Zealand Fabulous Te Papa Tour

Please note this programme is subject to change at the discretion of the Conference organisers.