

	Monday 9 October 2006 Concurrent Showcase Sessions		Tuesday 10 October 2006 Concurrent Showcase Sessions		Wednesday 11 October 2006 Concurrent Showcase Sessions
12.40 – 12.55	From Vexation to Motivation – A collaborative Library/Business School e-learning solution to deter plagiarism at the University of Auckland Lynne Mitchell University of Auckland	Papers Past, Present and Future: Digitised Newspapers at the National Library of New Zealand Sam Searle National Library of New Zealand	Any Questions? What kinds of questions do kids ask? Esther Casey National Library of New Zealand	Factors affecting the use of electronic resources by New Zealand health professionals Sharon Cornwall Waikato District Health Board	A modular approach: stripping back information literacy for new generation postgraduates at the University of Western Australia Medical and Dental Library. Monique Fountain University of Western Australia
12.55 – 1.10	Manukau Institute of Technology Library's self-paced library catalogue tutorial: from theory to practice Lai Kei Pang Manukau Institute of Technology		100 Years of New Zealand Science: Digitising the Early Journals of the Royal Society of New Zealand Sam Searle National Library of New Zealand	Join the club: a journal club as a tool for evidence based practice Rachel Esson Wellington Medical Library	Te Punga and net generation, more than an online tutorial. Liz Wilkinson University of Auckland
1.15 – 1.30	An academic library's challenge to create an optimal learning environment for students from disadvantaged groups Esther Retief University of South Africa	Leveraging Library Websites: Enriching the Patron Experience Benn Crawford Infinity Solutions	Friends of the Library - challenging complacency Elaine Sides Christchurch City Libraries		Navigating Next Generation Libraries Online: Delivering Content Through A Semantic Framework Alison Stevenson Victoria University of Wellington